

YOUNG KEENAN UNDER ARREST.

Accused of Participating in the Fatal Assault on Walter Hutchinson.

FIRST ARREST IN CASE.

Hutchinson was a Clerk Who Was Mysteriously Injured and Left Unconscious in Lumber Yard.

The first arrest in the case of the mysterious and probably fatal assault on young Walter Hutchinson was made this morning.

Detective-Sergeant Leonard, of Capt. Titus's staff, arraigned before Magistrate Crane in Centre Street Court Patrick Keenan, twenty-three years old, of No. 52 West Fifty-fifth street. Keenan was charged with complicity in the assault that resulted in young Hutchinson, who is a clerk in the New York Central offices, being left unconscious in a deserted portion of a lumber yard at Fifty-fifth street and Eleventh avenue. Keenan lives in the immediate neighborhood.

Leonard told Magistrate Crane that Capt. Titus had solved the mystery of the presence of the young man in that neighborhood and of the attack.

"All the evidence is in the captain's possession," he said, "and he asks that the case be adjourned for a few days until other arrests can be made."

Magistrate Crane held the prisoner for examination.

Leonard would not tell the nature of the evidence against Keenan. Nor would he say what was the motive for the deadly assault. Hutchinson was not robbed, for his watch and money were in his pockets and he would probably have died where he lay had not a night watchman found him yesterday morning. He is now in Roosevelt Hospital, where he is unconscious. He has been unable to make any statement that would give and clue to his assailants.

JAMES BROWN LORD BURIED.

Notables Among Mourners at Funeral of Famous Architect.

Funeral services for James Brown Lord, the famous architect, were held today in Grace Church, Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, rector of the church, and Rev. N. C. Carey officiating. The church was crowded with friends and relatives of the dead man and delegates from the different social and business organizations with which he was connected, a number of notables being among the mourners. A such floral tributes have been seen at any funeral in a long time, the offerings being beautiful, numerous and costly.

There were fourteen pall-bearers, Dr. Polk and W. G. Thompson, who attended Mr. Brown in his last illness; Newbold Edgar, H. S. Van Duser, M. S. Eaton, John Farr, J. S. Stewart, J. C. Cuyler, R. H. McCarter, J. F. Lander, Richard Mortimer, Paul Tuckerman, Herbert Fell and W. A. Potter. The burial was in Greenwood.

WRECK OF CAMORTA FOUND.

British Steamship Sunk in Irrawaddy Delta—650 Passengers.

RANGOON (British Burma), June 4.—The British steamer Camorta, from Madras for this port with 650 passengers, which from wreckage found by a searching steamer, disappeared on May 14, was believed to have foundered on May 6 in a cyclone, has been discovered sunk at Baranua Plata in the Irrawaddy Delta, directly in the track of shipping.

The topmasts of the vessel are protruding above the surface of the water.

MISS GEORGE TO PRESENT A YOUTHFUL GILBERTE.

She Is Physically Adapted to Role She Will Essay in "Frou Frou."

MISS GRACE GEORGE.

William A. Brady's revival of "Frou Frou" at the Garrick Theatre, beginning Thursday evening, in which Miss Grace George will be seen as Gilberte, is attracting unusual attention because of the physical attributes which Miss George will bring to her role. A youthful Gilberte will be a novelty, inasmuch as few actresses have ventured to essay the difficult part until well along in their careers. Gilberte was a woman of twenty, as the authors conceived her, but the public have never seen the role presented by an actress under thirty-five.

Miss George will be supported by an unusually strong company, including Wilton Lackaye and Grace Henderson.

Hauley, Mathew, sixty-eight years old, No. 217 East Thirty-fourth street, overcome by the heat in front of his home; removed to Presbyterian Hospital.

Norton, Mrs. Mary, No. 34 Park avenue, Jersey City, overcome at Pavonia and Grove streets, Jersey City, and taken to City Hospital.

New York arose to find the heat greater than that of the day before at the same time, but within a few hours it was found that the mercury was not going up by leaps and bounds as it did yesterday. Then the Weather Bureau issued a forecast of cool weather to come to-night, and between the effect of the prospective cold wave and the actual coolness—or comparative coolness—men took new hope.

Yet it was warm enough. The mercury was quivering with the 80 mark about noon, and there was promise that it would get higher. There was a better promise that it would not get as high as it did yesterday.

YAQUI INDIANS SLAY MEXICANS.

Captain, Lieutenant and Twenty-eight Men Killed in Ambush—Uprising Becoming General, It Is Said.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—A special from Tucson, Ariz., says:

"The uprising among the Yaqui Indians is becoming general. A detachment of 23 men from the force of Gen. Torres, who is pursuing the Yaqui in the Mazatlan mountains east of Hermosillo, was ambushed and 20 of the number killed.

"Capt. Celso Gomez and Lieut. Jose Valdez, of Twentieth Battalion, were among the slain. The Mexicans only one escaped unhurt. The Mexicans ran out of ammunition and engaged in a hand-to-hand battle with the Yaqui. Fifty of the latter were reported killed, but their great number overwhelmed the Mexicans. The survivors retreated to Hermosillo. Gen. Torres has retreated and sent out scouts loyal to the Government. Refugees arriving at Hermosillo re-apparent before noon was too late to save two lives. A man and a woman died from the heat of the night, which had been intense, owing to great humidity.

It was the first hot night of the summer, and an uncomfortable one at that, for the air was saturated with humidity. Over on the east side, the people resumed their old practice of sleeping on rooftops, sidewalks, fire-escapes or any old place but the stuffy rooms of their tenement dwellings.

Mrs. Annie Christian could get no breath of air in her stuffy room during the night and succumbed. Her daughter heard her labored breathing and went to her. The old lady complained of the heat. She died before the arrival of physicians.

The temperature throughout the night was even. It was 74 at 10 o'clock, the same at midnight, and at 6 o'clock this morning. Then the mercury began going up by leaps of two degrees an hour.

HEAT AFFECTS CADETS.

Several Succumb in Exciting Drill of West Pointers.

WEST POINT, June 4.—In the exciting cavalry drill for the benefit of the Board of Visitors several of the cadets succumbed to the heat yesterday. Under the supervision of Capt. Santa the cadets went through the manoeuvres, finishing the drill with a grand charge the entire length of the plain. They yelled like Indians and with sabres slashed imaginary foes.

During the centennial celebration President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou will be entertained at the residence of Col. Mills.

port that everywhere the Yaquis have taken the warpath. Three stations on the Sonora railroad have been abandoned and the telegraph operators have left. Gen. Luis Torres, in command of the Mexican troops, has been reinforced by his brother, Lorenzo Torres, with 200 mounted men. It is estimated that there are 1,000 Yaquis, well armed, assembled in the foothills of the Mazatlan Mountains.

The Mexican forces are short of ammunition and arms, and through the authorities at Nogales, all available arms and ammunition at Tucson was ordered shipped Monday.

The Yaqui captured twenty-five stands of arms in an ambush Sunday. Runners arriving at Hermosillo report fearful clashes in the ambushes which occurred Sunday near Aguafite.

As soon as the expected reinforcements arrive, Torres will engage the Yaqui in the mountains and a decisive battle is expected then.

AGAINST SPEEDING AUTOS.

New Jersey Grand Jury in Prosecution Threatens Indictments.

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 4.—The Union County Grand Jury today brought in forty-three indictments and a presentment against the speeding of automobiles, declaring that the roads in Union County were for the people and not for the few, and requesting the proper authorities to bring before the Grand Jury the names of violators that they might be indicted.

SMALL-POX AMONG THE PASSENGERS.

Case Reported by Steamship's Doctor as Rheumatism Turns Out to Be Dread Disease—Forty in Quarantine.

About forty steerage passengers who were landed at Ellis Island yesterday from the steamship Moltke on her arrival from Hamburg were to-day sent to Hoffman Island to be held in quarantine. It is feared they may have small-pox.

When the Moltke reached her dock in Hoboken a fourteen-year-old girl named Marie Gudzun, who came over with her brother, Jurgen Gudzun, was reported by the ship's doctor as suffering from acute rheumatism. The immigration inspector ordered her transferred to the immigrant ward at Long Island Hospital. On examination there the house physician pronounced the girl's trouble as a well-developed case of small-pox.

She was at once sent back to Dr. Doty at Quarantine, who had passed her with the other steerage passengers on the ship doctor's report. The Ellis Island authorities were notified and an effort was made to hold those who had been in the same compartment of the ship, but most of the 1,500 steerage passengers had been passed and sent to their destinations.

Only two little girls who had been in the same compartment with the sick girl were found. They are Fume and Sora Margowsky, who were being held for their brother, who is said to live somewhere in this city. They with Jurgen Gudzun and nearly forty others who were in his company were sent to Quarantine. It is impossible to say how many of the 1,500 other passengers, who have scattered over this city and about the country by various railroad routes, were exposed to infection coming across.
